

A Place in Childhood

PLACEMAKING WITH CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

TRAINING BASED ON OUR RIGHTS-BASED "HOW TO GUIDE", FOR CO-CREATING NEIGHBOURHOOD PLANS WITH CHILDREN AND TEENAGERS

Our training provides professionals, community leaders, and organisations with the tools to effectively include children's voices in place and neighbourhood planning. By learning from our extensive practical experience, you'll gain skills and insights for creating meaningful, inclusive spaces that empower young people.

CONTACT US

Email

jenny.wood@aplaceinchildhood.org

Website:

www.aplaceinchildhood.org

TRAINING OPTIONS

1. Online Half-Day Course

Ideal For: Professionals with existing experience working with children and young people, or those looking to understand the method for commissioning, research, or theoretical purposes.

What Will I Learn?:

- A best practice, rights-based methodology for co-creating place plans with children and teenagers
- Core theory and principles behind meaningful engagement and youth empowerment
- Insights into the importance, and application of, of the UNCRC in practice and decision-making

Key Benefits:

- A theoretical foundation to inform your hands-on facilitation practice
- Supporting your practice as rights-based commissioners, researchers, or policymakers
- Context and practical ideas for placemaking projects involving children and young people

Pricing

We charge the following depending on the sector you work in;

Third Sector: £100

Public Sector: £175

Private Sector: £250

Team Discount Rates

We are pleased to offer discounted rates for teams. To discuss a package, please email us at jenny.wood@aplaceinchildhood.org.

TRAINING OPTIONS

2. In-Person Course, bespoke to your needs

Duration: 1 Full-day training

Format: On-site, Experiential Workshop

Preparation: half day codesign session with commissioner

Ideal For: Organisations or teams with specific goals or projects related to children's rights and placemaking, seeking a customised training experience.

What's Covered:

- Everything included in the Online Short Course, with additional live practice
- Step-by-step walkthrough of each engagement task, as modelled by our team
- Opportunities to participate in simulations, including local walk and site visit, enhancing confidence and skills for live facilitation
- Q&A to address specific facilitation techniques and contextual needs
- Your bespoke training needs

Key Benefits:

- Hands-on experience to build confidence in delivery
- Real-time feedback and support from experienced facilitators
- Perfect for professionals ready to integrate the practice into their work with children and young people

Pricing Starts At

Per delegate, minimum 3 delegates:

Third Sector: £250
Public Sector: £450
Private Sector: £675

We will discuss a cost for the tailoring, and any travel and subsistence. Larger group discounts may be possible.

WANT TO GET STARTED?

Contact us to discuss your specific needs and desired outcomes. We'll collaborate with you to create an impactful training experience tailored to your organisation's vision and values.

For more information, please reach out via email or our Expression of Interest Form, and let's start building a programme that works for you.

CONTACT US

Email

jenny.wood@aplaceinchildhood.org

Website:

www.aplaceinchildhood.org

